Platinum Website Package: Manage Your Own Site with Dynamic Content

Dynamic Website: $350

Some people just need assistance getting their website started but would prefer to make future updates and changes to the site on their own. If you are one of these people the SolidFull Platinum Package with Dynamic Content is perfect for you. Our Platinum Package with Dynamic Content includes installation of a web based content management system of your choice (Joomla, Drupal, Wordpress, etc) and a 2 hour training session to show you (or a staff member of your choice) how to manage your new site's content using the handy online administrator's interface. Additional updates can also be emailed to the SolidFull webmasters at the standard hourly rate.*
$350 one-time setup fee.

Not sure which one to pick? Call us to discuss your needs. We are here to help!

Additional Features

Digital Photography: A digital photographer is available to travel onsite and capture stunning images of your business or organization in action for $50 per hour in the Redding, California area. There is a one hour minimum for an onsite visit from our photographer.

Graphic and Logo Design: Don't have a company logo yet? Not happy with your current one? Let our graphic designer come up with the ideal icon for your business or organization.

Commercial Marketing Packages for Newspapers and Magazines: Complete commercial media kits available for products interested in submitting an ad to a major magazine or newspaper. Our packages include ad submission and mass mail media arrangements.

Printed Media - Business Cards, Letterheads, Etc: Impress clients and business associates with your new logo on printed business cards and letterheads. We can also arrange to have your images printed on merchandise like t-shirts, postcards, magnets, key-chains, and more!

Applications – Donations Buttons, Shopping Carts, Web Calendars, Online Surveys: Add functionality to your site with web based forms that support donation buttons, calendars, survey systems, shopping carts, contact forms, and more.

Search Engine Placement: All packages include submission to the Google search engine. We will do everything possible to be sure your site automatically ranks high in search results when your clients look for your site on the web using the terms that describe your site.

Animations - Flash and Javascript: Custom animations are available to make your site really stand out and appeal to your target audience. These generally include several images and the company logo in a looped animated collage.

Streaming Video or Audio: We can post streaming videos, music, or audio on your site. Simply provide us with the DVD, video file, or audio file you want posted and we will prepare it in a web friendly format such as Flash, Windows Media Video, or Quicktime.

Hosting: We'll help you select an affordable and reliable hosting service that will be the virtual home of your new site on the internet. Generally speaking, most basic web hosting accounts start around $10 per month. We'll assist you with choosing a domain name that will be your unique address on the web such as yourcompany.com

Content Disclosure and Hourly Rate

Who provides the website content and material? Unless otherwise agreed, SolidFull clients are responsible for supplying their own website content and take full responsibility for all material posted on the website. Written text describing the product(s) or service(s) about your organization and photos are to be provided to the webmaster before a rough draft of the new site is created and agreed upon. If photos of humans are to be posted, it is the responsibility of you, the SolidFull client, to obtain a written release from that individual.

Web Designer Standard Hourly Rate: Any work performed outside the scope of the initial website configuration will be billed the standard rate of $25.00 per hour. This includes additional pages of text, photos, menu updates, items described in the additional features portion of this document, or any other service not performed during the initial site configuration.
